Chief, Support Staff

Consultants' Report

The Support Staff found reference report to be of unusual interest. It is gratifying to note that, in every field covered in the report for which the staff has responsibility, we have a survey and staff study under way. The following studies, currently in progress, are definitely related to specific problems discussed in the report:

1. The extent to which the Economic Research Area should engage in research on [REDACTED] 25X1
2. Inter-relations of [REDACTED] material; 25X1
3. Proformas;
4. How to write a research report; and
5. A general paper describing and analyzing the nature of the source materials available on the Soviet economy.
